

Third-Party Sources Reporting That Slotkin Signed An NDA Covering The Gotion Project

- 1.) Detroit News: "'To be part of those conversations, MEDC required Congresswoman Slotkin and members of our staff to sign an NDA,' said Austin Cook, a spokesman for Slotkin"
- 2.) Fox News: "Slotkin's office confirmed to The Detroit News earlier this year that the Michigan lawmaker and her deputy legislative director Austin Girelli signed NDAs...Following publication of this report, Cook confirmed Slotkin signed the NDA, but declined to comment further."
- 3.) WaEx: "Hill Harper, a black actor and long-shot primary opponent of the establishment-backed Slotkin, brought up accusations she signed a nondisclosure agreement to discuss a proposed Michigan plant by Chinese-affiliated electric vehicle battery maker Gotion"
- 4.) Fox News: "... entered into a non-disclosure agreement (NDA) to discuss a project in her state proposed by tech firm Gotion"
- 5.) Fox News: "... slamming Rep. Elissa Slotkin, D-Mich., for signing a hush agreement to engage in off-the-record discussions about a Chinese-backed project"
- 6.) Fox News: "... signed a non-disclosure agreement with the Michigan Economic Development Corp allowing them to be privy to negotiations about Gotion's proposed electric vehicle battery factory"
- 7.) Fox News: "Rep. Elissa Slotkin, D-Mich., ignored multiple requests for comment when asked why she signed a non-disclosure agreement (NDA) to engage in closed-door discussions about a Chinese battery company's proposed factory."
- 8.) Detroit News: "At the federal level, Slotkin has taken heat from conservative national publications for her office's signing of an NDA to get information on the Gotion project in Big Rapids."
- 9.) Reason: "This week, Beth LeBlanc of The Detroit News reported 'at least 163 individuals or entities have signed non-disclosure agreements' (NDAs)...It also includes the offices of Whitmer and U.S. Reps. Elissa Slotkin and Dan Kildee (both Democrats), plus 11 former lawmakers, 30 legislative staffers, and 'at least three local school districts and several local governments hoping to land projects in their areas.'"
- 10.) WaPo: "... is calling her 'Shanghai Slotkin' in return, highlighting her work with a Chinese-based company called Gotion"
- 11.) NYP: "Last August, Fox reported that Slotkin had signed an NDA with Gotion – twice"

- 12.) Michigan News Source: "She signed a non-disclosure agreement to engage in closed-door discussion about China-based Gotion's proposed battery factory in Big Rapids"
- 13.) Michigan News Source: "Because she can't discuss "any" potential development projects, those projects could include two projects that have Chinese ties including Gotion"
- 14.) Daily Caller: "In January 2022, Slotkin reportedly signed an NDA with the Michigan Economic Development Corporation (MEDC) covering "any potential development project identified as confidential," which would include projects of Chinese Communist Party-linked Gotion"
- 15.) Daily Caller: "Democratic Rep. Elissa Slotkin of Michigan walked away as she was confronted with multiple questions Wednesday about a non-disclosure agreement (NDA) with a Chinese company linked to the country's Communist Party."
- 16.) Daily Caller: "Democratic Michigan Rep. Elissa Slotkin signed a non-disclosure agreement in January 2022 that allowed her to participate in closed-door talks pertaining to Gotion Inc.'s Michigan projects"
- 17.) Daily Caller: "Slotkin had fallen under criticism from Republican lawmakers and organizations who claimed she had signed a non-disclosure agreement (NDA) on discussing Gotion's projects"
- 18.) WaEx: "Slotkin's campaign has repeatedly denied any wrongdoing after a staffer signed a nondisclosure agreement related to a proposed $2.3 billion Michigan plant by Gotion"
- 19.) WaEx: "Slotkin in 2023 signed a non-disclosure agreement with the company to discuss its plan to build an electric vehicle battery plant in Michigan, according to Fox News"
- 20.) Center Square: "The post featured a campaign ad referencing Slotkin signing a non-disclosure agreement in 2022 involving the construction of an electric vehicle battery plant in Big Rapids"
- 21.) WFB: "... and signing a hush agreement to participate in negotiations about it"
- 22.) WFB: "Slotkin has faced criticism in the race for signing a non-disclosure agreement related to Michigan's deal with Gotion, a Chinese company, to open a battery plant."
- 23.) Midwesterner: "... Slotkin only recently announced her skepticism after signing a nondisclosure agreement with Gotion"

- 24.) Midwesterner: "... it was noted by The Midwesterner that she had previously signed a nondisclosure agreement with Gotion"
- 25.) Midwesterner: "The Midwesterner exclusively disclosed Slotkin's signature on the NDA"
- 26.) Midwesterner: "After signing nondisclosure agreements with Chinese Communist Party affiliated electric vehicle manufacturers Gotion Inc. and Contemporary Amperex Technology Co. Ltd...."
- 27.) Midwesterner: "Slotkin, who signed five-year nondisclosure agreements with the Michigan Economic Development Corporation in 2022 related to a Gotion battery plant"
- 28.) Midwesterner: "The Midwesterner has obtained copies of the five-year NDAs Slotkin and a staffer signed with the Michigan Economic Development Corporation in 2022 related to Gotion and CATL, referred to as 'Development Projects' in the NDAs.
- 29.) Breitbart: "Fox News reported that the congresswoman ignored multiple comment requests asking when she signed an NDA, in her official capacity, to talk business with a China-based company named Gotion"